PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our audience gave us plenty of positive feedback last month after our first virtual concert, so we're proud and pleased to come to you again with this holiday musical event. Dr. Klemme once again stretched his imagination to orchestrate (pun intended) a dynamic choral concert for you, and I sincerely hope you enjoy listening as much as we enjoy performing.

As problematic as this year has been, the repercussions of the pandemic are hitting the United States hard during this season generally associated with joy and gratitude. Thank you for taking every precaution to prevent the spread of this virus. We singers look forward to a new day of concertizing when we are past this challenging time.

Stay alert to our upcoming concerts in February and May, which will almost certainly be virtual concerts like today's. And remember that we hold a special place in our hearts for our donors; check out our website to demonstrate your financial support, www.willamettemasterchorus.org. In addition to donors, we are fortunate to have many sponsors who generously support this holiday concert, and I take this opportunity to thank all of them heartily. Their names and specific sponsorships are in this program.

Yours in song,
Scott Reichlin, MD

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR'S PROGRAM NOTES

Welcome to our 2020 Holiday Concert.

As promised, the Willamette Master Chorus is bringing you a concert of carols and songs for the season. Even during the Coronavirus Pandemic, the chorus has found a way to bring music into your home. Thank you to the WMC virtual team and to the chorus for taking steps to remain safe and compile this concert.

As promised, the Judson Middle School Concert Choir is joining us. Under the direction of David Loney, these very talented young students have gone the extra mile and recorded music on their cell phones and submitted videos. They will share two very poignant and important songs from the "Social Justice Songbook." They will also join the Willamette Master Chorus in the closing number. Thank you, Judson Middle School!

As promised, the Trail Band Sextet is joining us as well. While the original Trail Band has disbanded, there are six members on the screen today. My thanks to these dedicated musicians who also recorded their individual parts at home and have put together a rousing rendition of Deck the Hall. Charter member Phil Neuman has arranged the familiar carol In Dulci Jubilo, for choirs and instruments. Thank you, Trail Band Sextet.

As promised, the Willamette Master Chorus is offering carols to highlight the holidays. I invited Jonathan Campbell to write a new arrangement of the old English carol, A Wassailing. Jonathan is a native of Salem and presently works as a full-time church musician in Claremont, California. This fresh new arrangement juxtaposes major and minor modalities and presents a fun challenge to the chorus to sing in eight-part harmony. Thank you, Jonathan. Another premiere performance includes Chris Jones' arrangement of the plainsong hymn, Of the Father's Love Begotten. Chris is a member of the WMC and consistently brings exquisite choral writing to us every year. Thank you, Chris. Our accompanist, Debra Huddleston, shares a carol medley, and I will lead the traditional carol sing-along from the organ. Please sing strongly! Finally, Scott Reichlin and his family are pleased to share an intimate Hanukkah celebration with our audience. Thank you, Reichlin family.

The Willamette Master Chorus is proud to fulfill our promise of music for the 2020-2021 season. On behalf of the Willamette Master Chorus, I extend warm greetings during these holidays and invite you to join us for a Bluegrass Music celebration with the Salem-based Severin Sisters on February 27 and 28 at 3 P.M. This winter concert will be streamed on YouTube. I also invite you to purchase a Willamette Master Chorus Holiday Compact Disc recording. This recording has many traditional favorites, along with the Willamette Winter Suite written by Grammy award winner Dave Metzger. Simply go to: Willamette Master Chorus and click on the "support" tab. This CD entitled Glazing Ice is a perfect gift for family and friends. (See page 11 for details.)

My sincere best wishes for a healthy holiday and a safe 2021.

JUDSON MIDDLE SCHOOL CONCERT CHOIR

David Loney
conductor

The Judson Middle School Concert Choir is an auditioned ensemble made up of 7th & 8th grade students. Known and respected throughout the Northwest, they have a long-standing reputation for choral excellence. Their director, David Loney, has been at Judson for 16 years, previously having taught high school and college ensembles in NW Washington. The Judson choral program strives to cultivate a love of singing, develop musical confidence, instill a knowledgeable appreciation of the choral art, and contribute to the broader choral community. It is our honor to be part of this combined virtual choir project.

LYRICS

Love is Love is Love

Love is love is love is love

Love, love, love; all we need is love, love, love

Ubi caritas et amor, where there's love, love is love.

When We are Singing

When we are singing, we are bound together
When we are sharing, we are free to be.
Both in our singing, and in our sharing
We are bringing change, we are making peace.

Through times of trouble, through times of pain
We offer healing like a gentle rain
Both in our healing, and in our caring
We are bringing change, we are making peace

When we are helping, we can be our best
When we are loving, hurt is put to rest
Both in our helping, and in our loving,
We are bringing change, we are making peace.

“I wrote this text and arranged the song with the hope that through the practice of singing together, even those with seemingly unsurpassable differences find common ground and community.”

— Kevin Padworski

A-wassailing

Here we come a-wassailing
Among the leaves so green,
Here we come a-wond'ring
So fair to be seen.
Love and joy come to you,
And to you your wassail, too,
And God bless you, and send you
A Happy New Year,
And God send you a Happy New Year.

We are not daily beggars
That go from door to door,
But we are neighbors' children
Whom you have seen before

Good master and good mistress,
As you sit beside the fire,
Pray think of us poor children
Who wander in the mire.

We have a little purse
Made of stretching leather skin;
We want some of your small change
To line it well within.

God bless the master of this house,
Likewise the mistress too;
And all the little children
Who round the table go.

Of the Father's Love Begotten

Of the Father's love begotten, E're the worlds began to be,
He is Alpha and Omega, He the source, the ending He,
Of the things that are and have been, And that future years shall see, Evermore and evermore.

O ye heights of heav'n, adore Him; Angel hosts, His praises sing;
Pow'rs, dominions, bow before Him, And extol our God and King.
Let no tongue on earth be silent, Ev'ry voice in concert ring, Evermore and evermore.

Christ, to Thee, with God the Father, And, O Holy Ghost, to Thee,
Hymn and chant and high thanksgiving, And unwearied praises be;
Honor, glory, and dominion, And eternal victory, Evermore and evermore.

In Dulci Jubilo

In dulci jubilo [In sweet rejoicing]
 Let us our homage show:
 Our heart's joy reclineth
 In praesepio [in a manger]
 And like a bright star shineth
 Matris in gremio [in the mother's lap]
 Alpha es et O. [Thou art Alpha & Omega]

O Jesu parvule, [O, tiny Jesus)
 My heart is sore for Thee!
 Hear me, I beseech Thee,
 O puer optime; [O, best boy]
 My praying let it reach Thee,
 O princeps gloriae, [Thou Prince of Glory]
 Trahe me post te. [Take me with you]

O Patris caritas [O Father's charity]
 O Nati lenitas [O newborn's mildness]
 Deeply we were stained
 Per nostra crimina [by our crimes]
 But thou for us hast gained
 Coelorum gaudia [heavenly joy]
 Qualis Gloria! [What glory!]

Ubi sunt gaudia [where be joys]
 If that they be not there
 There are angels singing
 Nova cantica [new songs]
 And there the bells are ringing
 In regis curia [at the king's court]
 O that we were there.
